

JOB DESCRIPTION:

Dynamic Landscape Architecture firms seeking a team member. The right candidate will have 2 to 3 years of relevant experience as a landscape designer with construction document and construction observation experience. Proficiency with AutoCAD, Adobe Suite, and Sketch-up computer programs are imperative. Other graphic computer skills such as Archicad, Rhino, hand-drawn graphics, knowledge of plant materials are also considered a plus. The appropriate candidate will possess strong skills in site design and planning, from conceptual design through to completion of construction documents, and have the ability to work well in within a team.

We are looking for self-motivated, ambitious and talented individual to join our team in designing and building residential and commercial projects at multiple scales.

Essential skills are:

- Work in teams with studio environment with minimal supervision
- Quality commercial and high-end custom estate experience preferred
- Strong organizational & communication skills
- Strong design and graphics skills
- AutoCAD, Adobe Suite, Rhino, Sketchup, and Free hand sketching
- Ability to work on multiple projects simultaneously
- Experience in generating construction documents preferred
- Strong design sense and detailing; Construction Administration Review shop drawings and submittals and RFI's
- Coordination with consultants and city agencies. Ability to work with entire staff, including overseeing field work and construction details.
- Must currently live in Los Angeles and be able to drive to sites.
- Ability to work with in tight schedules, identify problems, formulate solutions, result oriented.

Please email your resume and portfolio immediately to zack@zfreedmandesign.com

This position is open immediately. Part-time to start. This position provides the opportunity for growth and advancement